* While we would love to give out trophies and certificates to everyone-for every class in existence- We had to narrow it down to some common categories. If we have omitted someone or some class, we apologize- we will do what we can to include everyone in the event. If you have any questions- feel free to call Mike at 240-626-0092

*the voting will be done by the spectators. All voting and Judging will take place between 12:30 – 1:30 PM-- Awards will be presented at 2:00

*All spectators, family, friends, entrants, etc. are encouraged to vote for their favorites in each category—please play fair—one vote per person; Do not Organize a vote for a specific vehicle please! “Ladies Choice” voting applies to all mentioned above...however, This one gets the female vote ONLY!

*When you are voting- please pay attention to the information card that each entrant has placed by their vehicle, so that you are accurate in your vote as to what category the car in question may be in!

Anyone may pick up a voting card; If you have entered your own vehicle in the event- you are allowed to vote as well. You may fill out the ballot card and place the appropriate perforated slip for each category in it's corresponding box which will be located on the Registration table

Judging Criteria

While voting, people should look at: (if applicable): Paint and body, Exterior Trim, Interior, Engine Compartment, Display, Mechanics.... obviously people will be biased- but ideally, everyone will look and appreciate the vehicles respective beauty regardless!

NO ONE (unless given permission by the owner) should touch any show car. Please respect others and their belongings!
